

POLICE IN AUTOS ARREST TWENTY FOR FAST RIDING

Manufacturer Moulton Is Caught After Long, Stern Chase on West Side.

Bicycle policemen in automobiles and on motor-cycles rounded up twenty automobile drivers on the upper west side last night and early to-day, charging them with violating the speed ordinance. The arrests were made in Riverside Drive, Broadway and Columbus Circle.

Frank James, of No. 129 East Fifteenth street, a chauffeur for George Vachell, bookmaker, according to Tommason, Casey and Pollockson Gibbons, who was in an automobile, was driving at a rate of thirty miles an hour. Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock were in the machine and Mr. Wheelock gave chase.

Cyclists who were arrested were Ethan Marin, of No. 26 West One Hundred and Ninth street; Maurice Kuhn, of No. 6 Bush street; Brooklyn, Ream Colman, of No. 17 West Sixty-ninth street; John Clark, of Rosebank, Staten Island, and Frank Freeman, of N. 30 Eighth Avenue.

Roundman Casey had an exciting chase of more than two miles before he arrested Arthur J. Moulton, an automobile manufacturer, of No. 111 Fifth Avenue. The chase was down Central Park West, from One Hundred and Twenty-first to Sixty-eighth street, and concluded at the police station. Moulton was going at a rate of thirty miles an hour.

When Sixty-eighth street was reached cars blocked the way of the motor car and Casey forged ahead and arrested Mr. Moulton, who gave ball in the West Sixty-eighth street station.

Dr. Francis C. Edgeron, of No. 57 West Fifty-eighth street, who was William Waldorf Astor's physician, was also arrested. Dr. Edgeron was chased by Casey from Fifty-ninth street to Sixty-fifth street. In the auto were two women who jumped out, Casey says, and boarded a car.

More than twenty arrests were made. All will be arraigned in the West Side Court to-day.

The raid on speeders was made in response to complaints from the upper west side clergymen that many children were being injured by reckless automobile drivers.
